

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE CORRANCE SCHOOL TRUST

1 April 2023 – 31 March 2024

The Corrance School Trust is registered with the Charity Commission, Charity No 1014386 and it was constituted by a Declaration of Trust on 6 January 1992.

The current Trustees are:

Rev Anne Kember (Chairman)
Susan Paul (Parham) – Secretary
Michael Block (Parham)
Adam Paul (Parham)
Sandra Poacher (Parham)
Claire Adams (Parham)
Jennifer Garnett (Hacheston)
James MacKenzie (Hacheston)

The Trust obtained the funds from the sale of Parham School which closed in 1986. This Church of England School was set up in 1872 by Frederick Corrance, Esq. of Parham Hall. In recognition of this, the Diocese gave £12,838.98, which is kept as a permanent endowment. This endowment is for the educational and religious benefit of young persons up to the age of 25 living in Hacheston and Parham. Since that date, there have been further donations.

The Trustees organised a successful Horticultural Question and Answer Evening with a lasagne supper in March 2024 by Matt Tanton Brown. The event made a net profit of £620.95. The total amount on Deposit was £13,000 with the Cambridge and Counties Bank.

Interest received from the Cambridge & Counties Bank was £452.51 and on the Business Money Manager Account £44.77. The Bank charges imposed by the Bank amounted to £66.05. The Trustees approved 3 grants, totalling £240. All applications are treated in the strictest confidence.

The aims of the Trust are:

- a) To advance religious education in accordance with Christian principles and teaching amongst young people in the parishes of Parham and Hacheston
- b) To further opportunities in education and training for young people resident in the parishes of Parham and Hacheston
